

iBilingualism DOES Matter!

SCILT is delighted to be able to offer a series of national workshops in collaboration with Bilingualism Matters and Glasgow City Council's EAL Service.

Are you wondering how to engage your bilingual learners more and support literacy skills across both languages?

Recognising that the linguistic and cultural demography of Scotland's schools is changing, these free workshops are aimed at practitioners from Early Years to the Secondary phase.

Dates and venues:

Tuesday 4th October @ University of Strathclyde, Glasgow 16.00 – 18.00

Friday 7th October @ Edinburgh University, Edinburgh 13.30 – 15.30

Tuesday 1st November @ Longman House, Inverness 16.00 – 18.00

Wednesday 2nd November @ Aberdeen University, Aberdeen 16.00 – 18.00

For further information contact Angela de Britos:

angela.de-britos@strath.ac.uk

Places are limited – to book your place at one of the workshops please sign up on-line:

Glasgow: http://bit.ly/Bilingualism_Glasgow

Edinburgh: http://bit.ly/Bilingualism_Edinburgh

Inverness: http://bit.ly/Bilingualism_Inverness

Aberdeen: http://bit.ly/Bilingualism_Aberdeen